Welcome to Glenmore House

Since 1921, we have been welcoming discerning guests to this romantic venue of contrasts, rich in history and character. Glenmore House is a fine example of late Georgian architecture situated in the exclusive Surbiton conservation area adjacent to Crescent Gardens, a landscaped park providing the perfect backdrop for photographs.

Every wedding we host is unique and our experienced, dedicated wedding co-ordinators ensure that your special day is one that you remember forever.

Glenmore House is licenced for civil ceremonies and can accommodate wedding parties from 25 to 140 guests.

Exceptional elegance, exceptional value

Recently refurbished, all our rooms complement each other perfectly. Our light and airy Tudor Room is perfect for your wedding ceremony with elegant 16th century reclaimed cathedral glass windows adding to the sense of occasion.

The fabulous Elizabethan Suite comprises a magnificent double height ballroom featuring sparkling chandeliers, minstrel galleries and a sprung dance floor; adjoined by an exclusive, contemporary bar designed with the ambience of a high class nightclub.

With no room hire charges except for civil ceremonies and no hidden costs, Glenmore House represents outstanding value for money.

Dedicated professionals at your service

The Glenmore team are passionate about all they do. Our wedding co-ordinators delight in helping meticulously plan every aspect of your day and will be on-hand throughout the celebration for your peace of mind.

Your choice of wedding banquet is prepared in our kitchens by our award winning chefs, recruited from some of London's finest establishments. Our delicious food is created for you using the highest quality, freshest ingredients available. We have acquired an enviable reputation for superb value, gourmet cuisine second to none.

Our professional banqueting staff are committed to ensuring an effortlessly enjoyable event and dining experience for you and each and every one of your guests.

Committed to making your day special

It's all about you. We know that on the day, you want Glenmore House to reflect your wishes and to allow you to celebrate in the style you have always wanted.

Why not arrive direct to our door in your own horse drawn carriage, vintage double-decker London bus or classic limousine... just let your imagination run free!

Impressive double gates open on to Glenmore's free private car park which can safely accommodate up to 100 cars.

For your peace of mind, it's easy for guests to leave their cars at home. We are just a five minute stroll from Surbiton main line station where frequent trains take just 20 minutes to and from Waterloo. Or they could take a bus home, many routes stop right on our doorstep.

Nearby accommodation is readily available to suit all budgets and you can benefit from our agreements with several local hotels.
