YOUR NEXT CHAPTER

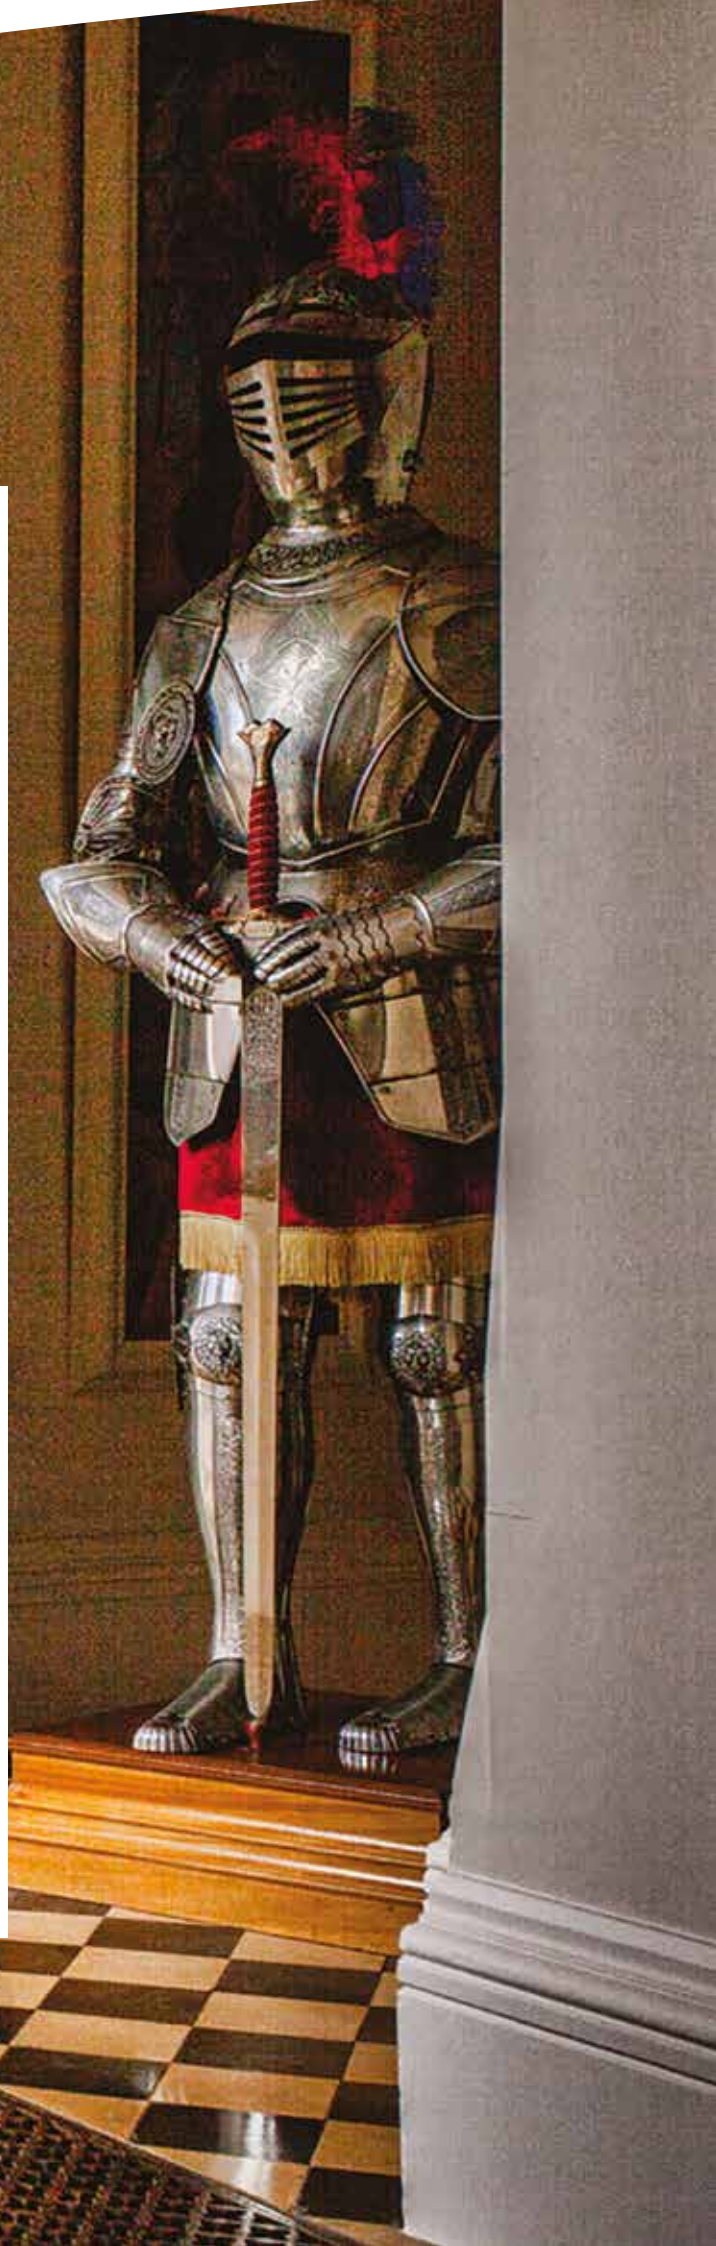

Exchange your vows at Stanbrook Abbey and be greeted with unrivalled elegance at every turn.

Originally built as a contemplative house for Benedictine nuns, Stanbrook Abbey has a rich history, inspiring Gothic architecture and an array of iconic features.

In 1860 the nuns commissioned Edward Welby Pugin and his two brothers to undertake a major scheme of work on the Abbey. Over the next 20 years they created the church, cloisters, tower and the other buildings you can see at Stanbrook to this day.

Nestled in the Worcestershire hills, Stanbrook Abbey has a wonderful historic charm and grace, with each of its 19 function rooms providing a beautiful setting, for any part of your special day.

Our unique history is not one that can be explored on the pages of textbooks and our contemporary style shouldn't be left untouched. Step back in time, indulge in fine food and modern luxuries delivered to you to create a one-of-a-kind wedding day you'll never forget.
